SEA/ML/da/Birmingham City University

8th March 2019

Dear Parent/Carer

We are pleased to inform you that your son/daughter has been invited to attend Birmingham City University's 'Explore Media and Journalism Day' on Wednesday 13th March. They have been invited to the event because they are currently studying A Level Film Studies and this experience day will give them the opportunity to find out more about degree courses and careers in this sector.

The event is free of charge to attend; however, the pupils are required to make their own way into Birmingham where they will meet Mrs Lockley at 9.20am at New Street Station who will then accompany students to the event at the university campus at Millennium Point.

The event finishes at 3.00pm, students will then be responsible for making their own way home from the university.

Students will receive lunch vouchers from the university at the event but are welcome to bring their own food, drinks or snacks if they would like to.

Please complete the attached consent form and return to Mrs Lockley by Monday 11th March.

Yours sincerely
