On this discussion page you will see the full details of the weekly task including a link to the scanned text for children to read. This link will open a new tab which looks like a gallery of pictures.

 Home School for Reading

Click on  so you have your quiz in one tab and the text in another to make it easy for you to answer the questions and check the text.

You do not have to answer all 10 questions at once! Spread your work out over the week by answering at least 2 questions a day. Make sure your name is on your work but you can submit as often as you wish.

By Friday 2pm submit your answers to your class teacher. Check the site every Monday by 10am for a new weekly task and exciting text!
