Computer Science

SQL and Databases

(What SQL is and how we use it to find information in databases. Need to be aware of how basic SQL Statements are made).

BTEC Extras

Science

Test yourself using your revision cards or mind maps so far in Biology. Do you know the required practical information, method?

French

Revisit thoroughly all personal revision cards about Theme 2.

Mental Health tip

Do not worry about what your classmates are doing – everyone will have a different way of revising and some will even say they have not revised when really, they have been working hard.
