Dear Parent/Carer

I trust this letter finds you safe and well and looking forward to the half term break. Our pupils have certainly been striving to 'be the best they can be' in 2023 and you can find out exactly what activities they have been participating in via our newsletter that can be found on our website <https://bit.ly/3k2Fim8>.

All pupils return to the Academy on Monday 27th February. During this day there will be a check on all uniform and equipment that we expect our pupils to adhere to. Please see below a list of our uniform requirements along with a link to our uniform page on the website.

- Black blazer with school badge
- White polyester/cotton shirt
- School tie, displaying six stripes (house colours)
- Black school trousers (NOT 'skinny fit' or 'drainpipe' style)
- Black school skirt (MUST be of knee length)
- Black tights (NO patterns)
- Black school shoes (NO canvas pumps or trainers)
- Large school bag (big enough for an A4 folder)
- No nose studs
- Earrings should be a single stud in the ear lobe
- All other jewellery is banned.

For more information on what is acceptable uniform please visit:

<https://bloxwichacademy.co.uk/secondary-uniform/>

We do recommend this before purchasing new shoes as retailers sometimes have different ideas on what is seen as school footwear.

We recently launched the first of our reward trips that will take place on Thursday 23rd March where all pupils who excel at Bloxwich Academy and meet the Bloxwich Values we have to become the 'best that they can be' will be heading off to Alton Towers as a testament for their positive contribution to the Academy.

Please note all pupils should be in lesson for their start time of 8.40am every day.

We really do appreciate the support from parents/carers who work with us to help prepare your child to be an outstanding member of our society with excellent outcomes to support their future.

Yours sincerely
