Dear Parent/Carer

I am delighted to inform you that during the final week of summer term, week commencing 17th July 2023, Scholastic will be visiting our Academy again to run a book fair for all pupils.

This is a fantastic opportunity to purchase some discounted books, which have been specifically selected to improve pupil's reading skills. With the end of term quickly approaching this is a great time to purchase a book, or a couple, to read over the summer holidays.

I am sure that it will come as no surprise to learn that the research is overwhelming regarding pupils who read more widely outside of school, achieving more highly within school and public examinations.

To that end, I hope that you will consider taking this or any opportunity to nurture your child's interest in reading.

Please note that pupils will not be able to use cash to make purchases but will need to make payment via WisePay. The Book Fair will be available from 8.00am daily, break time and after school until Wednesday 19th July.

Yours sincerely
