Please Note

The statutory limit on class sizes in infant classes restricts circumstances in which an Appeal Panel may uphold an appeal where the admission would exceed the class size limit of 30 pupils with a single qualified teacher. For Reception, Year 1 and Year 2, an Appeal Panel can only uphold an appeal if it is satisfied that:

Your child would have been offered a place if the published admission arrangements had been properly implemented

Or

Your child would have been offered a place if the arrangements had not been contrary to the school admissions code and legislation

The decision was not one which a reasonable admission authority would make in the circumstances of the case

Please note that while you may talk about personal factors at an infant class appeal hearing, the Appeal Panel cannot take personal factors into account unless they are relevant to one of the three points above.
