'Be The Best You Can Be'

Dear Parent/Carer,

There are two national events taking place next week that we would love children to get involved in.

To mark the start of anti-bullying week we would like to invite all children to wear odd socks, along with normal school uniform (or PE kit if it is your child's PE day), on Monday 13th November. Wearing odd socks is a great way to celebrate what makes us all unique in Anti-Bullying Week!

Then, on Friday 17th November, Bloxwich Academy Primary will be supporting Children in Need. Children are invited to come to school wearing something spotty in return for a donation of £1 towards the Children in Need cause.

We really don't want parents to go out and spend money on anything extra for the occasion, and would love you to get creative with the theme. Maybe you could use make-up or face paints to draw spots of different colours and sizes on their cheeky chops, or use pens or paints on old clothes to design a dotty outfit. Whatever you chose to do, we just want children to have a SPOT-tacular day!

We will also be taking part in activities in class related to Children in Need, and exploring the importance of fundraising, as well as how the money raised helps children across the UK.

Joining in with fundraising events and raising awareness of important issues is a central part of the National Curriculum, as well as being a big part of our Bloxwich Values. We hope you will support us by allowing your child to participate in these very worthwhile and enjoyable events.

Thank you in anticipation of your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

Ms. S. Shepherd
