

Curriculum Intent: The history curriculum at Bloxwich Academy aims to build pupils who are inquisitive, informed and tolerant by allowing them to engage in rigorous historical enquiry to develop an understanding of the past, present and future and become citizens of the world.

Curriculum Rationale: Our carefully-sequenced curriculum is driven by enquiry questions and allows pupils to gain an insight into how the past has been interpreted, an understanding of the roles individuals can play in events, an appreciation of and empathy for other cultures, and an awareness of how historical events have shaped the present and the future, in Britain, Europe and the wider world.

both disciplinary skills and substantive knowledge where pupils study History both chronologically and thematically during their time at Bloxwich Academy to reflect the significance of key events, periods and people in the past and

What makes the Bloxwich experience unique: We inspire pupils by teaching them about the most fascinating, challenging and significant aspects of the past and the work of historians to allow them to make links to their own experiences, culture and heritage.
